http://www.chabad.org/thejewishwoman/roshchodesh_cdo/aid/2263461/jewish/Elul.htm

On the evening of Aug.22, the moon will darken at the approach of the new month, Elul, and so we gather as women, to share and learn together just as our ancestors did so long ago.

Elul is the 12th and final month in the Jewish calendar. It is a month that connects the past year with the coming year—a time when we reflect on where we stand and where we should be going.
